How to Get There/Where to Stay

- The El Paso, TX airport is 33 miles from our campsite. The pavement comes within 6 miles of our camp. From there, we have good dirt road for any average rental car, except in the unlikely event of rain.
- Directions are easy to follow, but cell phone coverage is unreliable.
- You are welcome to follow us or to ride with us. We will have vehicles leaving from La Mesa, NM and from the El Paso airport at 5:00 on Thursday. We will also have a vehicle returning to the airport and arriving at the airport at 4:30 on Sunday.
- A sleeping bag and tent is available for each rider. There are also hotel and bed and breakfast opportunities within 15 miles. There is plenty of room for campers, RVs, and living quarters trailers.
- There is no electricity at camp, and generators may not run between 6:00pm and 9:00am.
- We have porta potty, a water faucet, and a water hose.
- We provide plenty of drinking water and great food. We provide a good ranch horse with tack and expert guidance.

This cattle drive is an opportunity for riders who want to participate in ranch work and who can trot two consecutive circles. (If you are interested in something for less experienced riders, or in an opportunity for more aggressive riders, please call.)

$1,295 total per rider. 50% deposit to book. Limited to 24 riders.

$295 for non-riders. 50% deposit to book. Limited to 16. Includes tent, sleeping bag, Chuck Wagon meals, peace and quiet, and not much else.
